

Gail Williams

March 9, 1930 - November 14, 2019

Gail Williams, longtime Terrell resident and beloved husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, uncle, and friend passed away November 14, 2019. Gail was born March 9, 1930 in Potts County, Oklahoma to John R. and Clarabel Williams. He was preceded in death by his parents, sisters Georgia Hart and Evelyn Branscum and brother, Boyce Williams. Gail grew up near Shawnee, Oklahoma and on August 8, 1948, he married the love of his life, and constant companion, Betty Sue Blevins in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He and Betty moved to Terrell when he was 20 years old and she was 18 to open Terrell's first Dairy Queen store which they owned and operated until 1963. He later co-founded Y-Not Better Papers which was eventually acquired by Bunzl Papercraft USA. Gail continued with Bunzl until his retirement 1997. In retirement Gail was able to spend more time with those he loved. He and Betty were his grandchildren's greatest fans and supporters. Regardless of the activity, they could be counted on as taxi drivers, cheerleaders or counselors. Gail was an active member, teacher and deacon of East End Baptist Church, later known as First Missionary Baptist. In his later years, he became a member of First Baptist Church. From 1998-2010 they were involved with Baptist Church Builders in various locations helping to design, build and repair worship centers for smaller congregations in locations across the United States. Gail's many hobbies included coaching little league baseball, girls' softball, church basketball, officiating high school football, golfing and hunting. These activities created wonderful memories and lifelong friends. Gail leaves to cherish his memory, his wife of 71 years, Betty Williams of Forney; son, Steve Williams and wife, Debbie, of Terrell; daughters; Suzan Wooten and husband, Terry of Forney and Pam DeFord and husband, Jim of Justin, Texas. Grandchildren, Matt Williams and wife Angela; Marty Williams and wife, Michelle; Kristen (Wooten) Higginson and husband, Dan; Stephanie Wooten-Quijada and husband, Andrés, Jamie (DeFord) Wallum and husband, Jason; and Jeremy DeFord. Great-Grandchildren, Eli, Emerson, Easton, Everett, Colby, Gabe, Emily, Wyatt, Addison, Trace and Chloe; sister, Eleanor Munn; brother-in-law, Delbert Mueller and wife, Paula, as well as numerous nieces, nephews and a host of friends. Funeral service will be at 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, November 19th, 2019 at First Baptist Church, 403 North Catherine, Terrell, Texas with interment to follow at College Mound Cemetery. The family will receive friends at 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m., Monday at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel. Memorials may be made to Jacksonville College, 105 B. J. Albritton Drive, Jacksonville, Texas 75766.

“ Steve and Family-
Sorry to hear of the loss of your Dad. I, as well as my Mother, thought so much of your parents, as she worked at the Dairy Queen in the early years. Lots of good memories.

With our sympathy, and friendship,

“ Sometimes in life we feel so blessed for knowing someone special. That's how Ali and I felt about Gail. We always looked forward to his visits at our store and loved it when he shared memories of my childhood and kept me up to date on all of his dear family. We are going to miss this kind, funny, and sweet man so much, but we'll forever be thankful that Gail was our friend and our lives were happier because of him. We send our love and prayers to sweet Betty and all of his dear family.

“ Like so many, I came to know Gale first at the Dairy Queen but our friendship grew as I became a football official after college. Gale, Raymond Sparks, Gerald Gale and myself spent many a night traveling the area, calling football games together and it was during these times I really got to know and love Gale. Later, Rayford Harwell joined us and those stories are way too many to try to write but strong bonds were made. Patsy and I would see Gale and Betty at the Red Barn frequently these later years and always enjoyed our visits with them. Both are wonderful people blessed to have been able to live great lives together as such inspiring examples for so many. As with many, my health is not the best these days and I have been summoned to one of my doctor's office Tuesday at 10:30 in Dallas, all unexpectedly on Friday, so I will not be able to attend the funeral but will look forward to seeing the family tonight at the visitation. A life well lived, Gale, thank you for all your influence in my life and your friendship over the years! Bill and Patsy Sparks Marshall

“ When we moved from Tennessee to Terrell in 2008, the first neighbors that greeted us were Mr Gail and Mrs Betty. I left a week later for 18 months in Iraq. Mr. Gail insisted on mowing our lawn and helping Tammy and Braden in any way possible while I was away. If there was ever a tool that needed borrowing or a needed helping hand, Mr Gail was there to lend it. If he couldn't help physically he would be right there with advice, a bottle of water and a ride from point A to B on the ol' golf cart. He was a good source of advise and a shoulder to lean on in a time of need, and a great role model for our kids. You couldn't ask for a better neighbor or friend. I was sad to see him and Mrs. Betty move last year and heartbroken now. Mr. Gail will truly be missed.

“ Sorry to learn of Gail passing. He was a good man with a giant heart of loving care for the kids of the 50's who hung out around the DQ. It was a gathering spot and I am sure we took up space better paying customers could have used but Gail never did anything but smile and laugh at us. He was teaching us to care for others by example. The class of 58 will always remember that friendship. Thank you Betty for sharing him with us. Rest now good and faithful servant in the loving arms the Saviour. Charlie Akin class of 58.

“ Just a note to the family before we list our fond memories of Gail. We sincerely regret not being able to attend the funeral. Even though Tiana graciously offered to drive us there and back, about two weeks ago I had a minor stroke, apparently without permanent damage, so I feel a need to not let myself get too tired. Also, Paula has a very tender spine that does not allow long trips, like almost 900 miles one way, without seriously riling her back to the point of not being able to sleep well at night. Thus, we decided to stay at home but certainly will be there in spirit with all of you on Tuesday.

Our fond memories of Gail probably would fill a book. But the times that most stand out are the trips to Terrell to see my dad, Martin, and his wife, Lorene through the 1980's and 1990's. Betty and Gail would always invite us over along with their children and grand children. Gail would tell some of his stories, along with the rest of the family, and we would laugh and laugh and generally have a great time. But that was far from all. Often Gail would bar-b-que up several batches of brisket while Betty and the girls would prepare mountains of sides and desserts. Oooo, it makes my mouth water just to think about it. My what good times those were!

However, there was a lot more to the visits than eating and story telling. In the 1980's we often, together with dad and Lorene, cheer on the Dallas Cowboys, when they were "America's" team, along with UT football team. This was often followed by long hours of playing lively table games. Somehow, their games were always lively! Besides that Gail was a meticulous lawn keeper. Despite having acres of oak trees around the house he kept a lush green lawn which almost never had a leaf on it in fall. What a guy!!!

We will truly miss Gail.

When I was a kid in Jr.High and my Freshman year, if I needed a ride to an out of town football game I would hitch a ride with Gail and Betty. He will truly be missed.

“ Dearest family, my heart weeps with you in the passing of Brother Gail. I pray for God's perfect peace to be yours now and in the days ahead.

"Death often comes on silent wings to us below, whisking the soul to realms above to abide in His Glow.
Tis seldom a right time for us below,
But God's timing is always right, we know.
Those left behind have but memories still,
Sweet peace comes to us as we accept His Divine will.
O, what a day of rejoicing that will be
When all with rapture our loved ones see."

“ In 1956 i was 12 years and had never had a cold coke from a Dairy Queen .I could however look and dream as i watched others enjoy their drinks. Money was hard to come by and ours went for groceries.
Suddenly i was the only one close to being in line for service. A voice called out " Can i help you". Oh no , i replied, just looking, besides i don't have any money. A few minutes later he appeared at the window and handed me the largest cup of Coke i had ever seen., Gail Williams was that man. In later years i would learn he gave away many drinks and ice cream to kids just like me. I have always loved Gail and Betty from that moment.
It's surprising what a simple act of kindness will do.

“ Gail Williams was the Best, while growing up in Terrell I didn't know anyone with a bigger heart than Gail, he was a very generous man that loved people and took an interest in you that always wanted to help you anyway he could and I looked up to him as a hero as I believe many others did. My aunt worked for him at the Dairy Queen and when I came around he always had a big smile and kind and encouraging words that meant a lot to me. His son Steve and I played baseball on the same team one year and Gail was our coach, that was the best year I had playing baseball because our coach was a man that really cared about all of us and showed us how a man of caring, love, wisdom and integrity leads and that taught us youngsters a lot, mainly how we should conduct ourselves in life. Gail was a man who loved his family with everything he had, a great business man, a wonderful employer, a mentor, a friend and my life was enriched from knowing you. Gail Williams, you are one of the best that God ever put on this earth, Rest In Peace.

“ Mike and I always admired Gail and Betty. They were great examples of what Christians should be and we learned so much from them. We played softball and tennis with them, went to the same church, and attended parties at their beautiful home.
