

Alton Lockley

January 10, 1944 - December 25, 2023

Mr. Alton Lockley, beloved husband, father, grandfather and friend, passed away peacefully on Dec. 25, 2023 with family at his side. Alton was born on January 10, 1944, in Elmo, Texas to Emmitt Lufton and Belah Lockley, both of whom preceded him in death along with brothers B.J. and A.T. Lockley. To know Alton was to know a man with a deep love for family and a personality the size of Texas. Alton was a professional truck driver, but his heart always resided at home where his wife and family were. Alton would create a unique nickname for each person with great affection. Although Alton was known to be a bit of a troublemaker in the most fun-loving way, it was always done with a smile and a joyful heart to keep others laughing. Alton would enjoy going with his wife, Brenda, to Las Vegas, Oklahoma, Shreveport or any place with a casino to spend time gambling and enjoy each other's company. The top priority in Alton's life was always his cherished family whom he loved fiercely.

Left to carry on the love that Alton shared are his beloved wife, Brenda Lockley, son Mitch Lockley, daughters Dee Dee Blair, Lisa Maples, Charlotte Case, Lynette Boyd and Susan Moss. Also left to treasure his memories are his brother, Eddie Lockley and numerous grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of friends.

A Gathering of Family and Friends will be held on Alton's birthday, January 10, 2024, at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel beginning at 5:00 p.m.

“ My grandfather, “Papa Al”, was the best man, husband, father, and grandfather. When god brought papa into my grandmothers life, he truly sent an angel. He was our knight in shining armor, showing her what true love actually was, and stepping up to be the father that HIS girls (god knew they were always his girls), longed for and needed. He solidified our family and truly was our rock.

My best memories growing up are of Papa picking me up every weekend, trashing around and just hanging out, putting me on his knee and letting me drive the tractor, falling asleep in the trailer he pulled with the mower while he cut the yard, watching walker the Texas ranger, The rifleman, and all our shows. I cried every Sunday night when it was time to go home. I never wanted to leave my grandma and my papa. I would reach for him through the window, crying “I..want..my..pa..pa...”. He taught me the value of your word, The principles of Life. How to be a good woman. He taught me all the unspoken principles that a good person needs to know.

He was a good, good man. The best I think there ever truly was. A hardworking provider, who made sure his wife and family never went without. He was the wise man who, when he spoke, you listened. He didn't need to speak loudly, rarely raised his voice. He let the sentiment of his sentences speak for themselves. He was the rock of our family, he held us together when times were tough. And in times of festivity, he always provided a laugh. Quick and witty, that man's tongue was sharp as steel, the jester of jokesters. He always had a comeback..he could never be topped. My grandfather, Alton Lockley, was undeniably, wholeheartedly, irrevocably, the BEST man I will ever know.

I will always love you, papa. Thank you for being our rock. Thank you for teaching me. Thank you for loving me. Thank you for everything. I love you forever.

*vergessen nie das,
ich lassen su nicht.*

*I'll see you again, papa.
I love you.*
