

Anita Flores

September 1, 1942 - April 18, 2024

Anita Elizabeth Rush Flores passed away peacefully surrounded by her loved ones on April 18, 2024 in Dallas, Texas. Anita was born on September 1, 1942 in Terrell, Texas. Anita's life was filled with love and laughter! She worked in the retail industry as a floor supervisor, and each encounter she had with others was meaningful. While working in Dallas, Anita was an eyewitness to the fateful day that President John F. Kennedy was assassinated. In Anita's home life, she was a wonderful provider and always a great friend; Anita made friends with people wherever she went! She especially enjoyed going thrift shopping and finding new-to-her treasures. She would often gather the family around the table and make Hot Steak, which is still bragged about to this day, because hers was the best. Anita had a lifetime best friend, more like a sister, in Barbara McDonald. Anita's impact on the lives she touched will carry on for generations to come.

Left to carry on Anitas' love and legacy are her beloved husband of 53 years, Genaro Sosa Flores, daughter Renae Flores and wife Debbie Franklin, son Carl Carson Jr. and wife Mary, daughter Rebecca Kessler and husband Joe, daughter Debra Kay Flores, step-daughters, Sylvia Gonzales and husband Roman, Diane Mills and husband Rick. Also left to carry on Anita's love are her grandchildren: Christopher, William, Alicia, Amanda, Carl, Kevin, Jayden, Jace, Bree, and Clara, along with 6 great grandchildren, brothers Charles Edgar Rush Jr. and Ricky Rush, along with numerous nieces, nephews, family and friends, all of whom will miss Anita very much.

A visitation will be held Wednesday, April 24, 2024 at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel in Terrell, Texas from 5-7 p.m. A Graveside service is scheduled for Thursday, April 25, 2024, starting at 1:00 P.M. at Campground Cemetery, in Terrell, Texas.
