

Ann Elizabeth Jaynes

July 5, 1937 - August 17, 2022

Ann Elizabeth Jaynes, beloved wife, mother and grandmother, passed peacefully from this life into the presence of her Lord on the morning of Aug. 17, 2022. Ann was born July 5, 1937 in Ft. Smith, Ark. To Robert and Martha Bocquin, both of whom preceded her in death.

Growing up in Ft. Smith and being a part of an original pioneer family that settled that region in the early 1800s gave Ann a great feeling of carrying on values steeped in faith, hard work, along with dedication and devotion to family. She was a woman who always sought to help others in any need and her kindness was immediately seen in the smiles and encouragement she had for everyone she met. Ann made a wonderful home for her husband and three sons where she made sure they had everything they needed as she organized their homework, athletic events and was their favorite chauffer! An excellent cook at all she created, Ann will most especially be remembered for her fantastic and tasty homemade meals that was looked forward to after a long day at work and school. She had a superb memory and facts about the world, her family and friends were immediately filed away and then brought forth to be celebrated during birthdays, anniversaries, holidays and times of accomplishment. Ann was a faithful member of the Christian Center of Mesquite. A beautiful lady, inside and out, Ann will be greatly missed and always remembered.

She leaves a loving family to continue her legacy of love including her beloved husband, Joe Jaynes of Mesquite, TX; cherished sons: Eddie Jaynes of Mesquite, Joe Jaynes and wife, Shelley, of McKinney, and David Jaynes and wife, Darla, of Frisco; treasured grandchildren: Treyson Brooks, Arielle Jaynes, Paige Jaynes, Christian Jaynes, and Alexis "Lexi" Ann Jaynes and great-grandchildren Ivan Brooks and Anders Brooks as well as other extended family and many friends.

A visitation for Ann will be held Friday evening August 19, 2022 from 6-8 p.m. at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel where family and friends will gather to extend condolences.

“ Dear Nana,

My heart has ached so much in the last 48 hours of you not being here, but I can only imagine what your 48 hours in Heaven has been like and somehow that has brought me joy for you.

I would give anything to just have one more day and one more conversation with you. To see your smile and to hear you say “I love you girl” one last time.

I will always remember who started my love for the Disney Classics. It seemed like every year a new Disney movie came out, you bought it for me on VHS. Then I can never forget all the ice cream nights we had together when I would spend the night. These are the special memories that I will remember when I think of you.

I love you so much Nana and I’m going to miss you bunches, but I know I will see you again soon.

“ Mom - after 58 years, I woke up today - for the first time in my life - without a Mom - I, also, realized that I have never gone this long in my life without talking to you - the pain is indescribable! You were not just my Mom, but you were my best friend and closest confidant. I have often told you that the ONLY thing that's going to get me through when you are gone is having the assurance that I will see you again in Heaven.
And as much I used to love to aggravate you, 'yank your chain', and goof on you I loved even more our conversations about eternity and Heaven.
I am thankful that God has given me the assurance that you are now in Heaven and enjoying all of the endless joys it has to offer. I love you, I miss you more than I have words to say, but most of all - I PROMISE you that I will see you again in that CITY where death will no longer separate us.
So this a 'see ya later' and not a 'goodbye'
I love you!!!! God could not have given me a better Mother than you!
Until then....

So sorry to hear of Ann's passing. There is not a doubt in my mind that Ann's already enjoying the blessings of being with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We attended church with Joe and Ann for numerous years. We enjoyed years of great fellowship with them. Prayers go forward to the family. We will see you in Heaven.
Sincerely, Joel and Lynn Rogers

“ Mom, I don't even no where to start. As I sit here on your couch in your and dad's home at 3am the morning after your passing with a very broken heart. A huge flood of emotions are racing through my mind that I can't contain so I want tell you even though I know you will never read the words I need get express my feelings to you. As my tears roll down my face I want you to know you were the best mom a son could ever want or have. The things that I have learned from you are to many count. Thanks for always being there for me while I was growing up and not getting to mad at me when the school would call you a say Mrs Jaynes did you know David did not show up to school today and would reply (Well I sent him) And when I got home you would ask how was school today I knew then that my evening was not go to turn out so well when Dad got home. There are so many other things I want tell but space in this post to say it all. But do know that I am going to miss you so very much and my drive home from work will never be the same again with out calling you to see how you were doing and tell how my day went. I take comfort knowing that I will see you again in that city that the book Revelation speak of but unti then know that I Love you with all my heart and it's never going to be the same here without you. Until we meet again my dear mother I Love you and all ready miss you so much! Your loving son David
