

Bernard Washington

November 27, 1938 - January 4, 2025

Bernard Lavon Washington, 86, of Terrell, Texas passed away Saturday, January 4, 2025, at his home. Bernard was born November 27, 1938 to Jessie J Washington and Geneva Tapp Washington both of whom joyfully welcomed him into Heaven along with his daughter, Elisia Washington, and daughter in law, Elizabeth Washington.

In Bernard's early years, he grew up in Avinger, Texas, a small town in East Texas and there, he graduated from Avinger High School. Later in life, Bernard discovered his true calling- working on the Daniels horse ranch. He became a staple at the Daniels Ranch and he devoted 40 years of dedicated work in taking care of the ranch's land and livestock. Bernard truly found peace in ranching and with horses. In each horse, he found the beauty, strength and intelligence and loved everything about them. Bernard's family remembered him to have a stellar sense of humor and, at each gathering, he was known to fill the entire room with smiles and belly laughs. His wit and insight were valued by all who knew him and he had a talent of his most famous catch phrase being "everything is peachy but the seed!"

Bernard leaves behind a legacy to be proudly carried on by his son, Fredrick Washington and daughter, Sharon Washington and fiancé, Michael Arrington; grandchildren: Jamar Washington, Terrence Washington and Cortney Washington; great-grandchildren: Cameron Washington, Mckenzie

Washington, Caleb Washington, Quintin Washington, and Quentevia Washington; sisters in law: Mary Childs and Ruth Devereaux; brother in law; Curley Choice, as well as nieces, nephews, other extended family, his Daniels Ranch family, all of whom will cherish the memories of Bernard in their hearts.

“ GOOD MORNING DADDY, IT IS POURING DOWN RAIN HERE. ON DAYS LIKE THIS YOU WOULD CALL ME ASKING HOW IS THE WEATHER IN DALLAS (SMILE) I REALLY MISS THEM DAYS. IT BROUGHT A SMILE TO MY FACE WHEN I SAID TO MYSELF THIS MORNING (I KNOW WHERE DADDY WOULD BE IF HE WAS HERE NOT IN HIS TRAILOR BUT IN HIS OFFICE) DUE TO THE RAIN AND HIGH WINDS. TELL MAMA AND LISA I LOVE AND MISS THEM JUST AS MUCH AS I LOVE AND MISS YOU.
