

Beverly Young

October 7, 1938 - December 22, 2024

Beverly Jean Young passed away peacefully on December 22, 2024, entering into her eternal rest with Jesus. Beverly was born October 7, 1938, in Spur, Texas to Homer and Pauline Robinett, both of whom preceded her in death along with her beloved husband, Doyle Young and infant brother, Homer Wagner Robinett.

Beverly was a brilliant young woman who could overcome any circumstances thrown her way. Throughout her life she had struggled with epilepsy, however that did not stop her from rising above the challenges and pursuing her higher education, obtaining her Bachelor's degree in Education with a minor in African Geography; Beverly was a very proud graduate of East Texas State University! While studying she also studied the French language, yet it was often intertwined with her East Texas twang. Beverly graduated with her Bachelor's degree the same year her daughter Jill graduated High School. Beverly did not use her degree in a traditional format, she instead used all her skills in bringing up her beloved family and gathered them around the table. A staple of the kitchen was always fresh made cornbread, a recipe that was passed down, but no one could make it quite like she did.

In 1958, Beverly married the love of her life, Doyle Young, and they loved each other passionately for 53 years. Together they built the legacy that follows Beverly's footsteps, their children, Jill Baltz and husband, Tom Harlan, Jan Robins and husband, Marlin, and son Jack Young. Also left to cherish her memories are her grandchildren, Brent Alan Bridges II and wife, Elyse, Crystal Bridges, Stephanie Wood and husband, Tim, Janna K'lynn Smith and husband, John, and Ashley Young, along with 9 great-grandchildren all of whom loved Beverly dearly.

A Celebration of Life service will be held on January 11, 2025 at First Assembly of God, Hawkins, Texas beginning at 1:00 pm.

JK

Two of the most wonderful Godly people in this world. They raised 2 beautiful children but how Jackie “white trash” came from them is a mystery. At my fathers memorial he was so disrespectful all he could do was leave his child unattended while he had sex in a house full of mourning then was extremely disrespectful when my mother passed and again at her memorial. Unintentional can be forgiven but intentional is anything but. I’m so sorry to hear aunt Beverly is gone but find comfort in knowing she is with uncle Doyle once again. Thank God she had 2 children to love and care for her.
