

Breana Wickersham

March 9, 2024

In the embrace of family and friends, we gather to celebrate the life of Breana Wickersham, a cherished daughter, sister, niece, aunt, teacher and friend. Breana's journey on this earth touched the hearts of many, leaving a legacy of love, compassion, and joy. Our precious Breana Marie was born November 6, 1993 in Mesquite, Texas and passed from this life and into our eternal memories on March 9, 2024.

Breana now joins her beloved family members who have preceded her in death including her Great Grandmother Edna Johnston, Great Grandfather Hoppy Johnston, Uncle Steve Plunk, Aunt Candy Wickersham, Aunt Sherry Wickersham, Grandmother Alice Wickersham, Grandfather Pops Wickersham, Uncle Randy Wickersham, Uncle Ray Shafer, Aunt Amy Wickersham, Cousin Keith Padgett, Great Grandmother Mary Nell Plunk, and Great Grandfather Allen Plunk.

Breana graduated in 2012 and spent most of her life in the Terrell area. She dedicated her time and passion to Bear Creek Lodge Learning Center, where she served as a Teacher, nurturing young minds with care and dedication. Her colleagues and the parents all remember Breana's bright smile and her ever-present willingness to always help. Her generous heart was always evident as she welcomed the little ones and their parents to another fun-filled and adventurous day of learning about the great world around them.

In her free time, Breana's creativity and love for her family shone brightly. She cherished moments spent with her loved ones, often enjoying dancing, singing, attending live music shows, and riding the Dart train all over Dallas with the kids. Breana's creative soul found joy in crafting memorable experiences for her family, whether it was for birthdays, holidays, or Bear Creek activities. She was a devout attendee of Radiant Church VZ, finding solace and community in her faith. Breana also had a love for building fires and was known for her affection for fire pits. Her favorite movie was Titanic, and her favorite TV show was Friends. Breana fulfilled a hope of traveling by going to the Titanic Museum in Tennessee in 2023 and getting to go to the beach where she was able to enjoy the coast. On any long excursion or weekend trip, you could count on Breana making sure to cherish every moment of adventure.

She adored all things with elephants and had a passion for the vibrant colors of teal and turquoise. Additionally, Breana had a mild obsession with hats, each of which always added a touch of flair to her unique style! Her love for her family and friends was boundless, and she was recognized as one of the most selfless individuals one could meet.

Her favorite saying, inspired by her deep love for her family, was, "Ohana means family. And family means nobody gets left behind or forgotten."

Breana leaves behind a devoted family who will continue to carry her memory in their hearts, including her mother, Stephenie Wickersham; father, Ricky Wickersham; siblings: Candace Wickersham and niece Sofia Wickersham, Brenda Sanchez and spouse Eduardo Sanchez and niece Annabell Sanchez, Priscilla Sanchez and nephew Cameron Sanchez, Brian Wickersham and spouse Kalyn Wickersham and nieces: Nevaeh Fregia, Brailynn Wickersham, Emberlynn Wickersham along with expected baby nephew Wickersham; grandmother, Jamie Plunk and grandfather Phillip Plunk; Aunt Michelle Plunk and cousins: Ashley Frazier, Allen Plunk, and April Brown; Aunt Tammy Shafer and cousins, Olivia Lopez and Sammy Winstead; Cousins: Katy Bassford, Wendy Romo, Dion Jones, and Michael Jones; Uncle LeRoy and Aunt Lydia Wickersham and cousins: Douglas Wickersham, Grace Wickersham, Ella Mattox, Shawna Wickersham; cousins: Jennifer Brooks,

“ My sweet Breana,
You were my everything. My best friend and sister in Christ. I am so thankful for our years of endless laughs, dinner dates, dancing our hearts out , and 2 am gas station runs. I will never forget the time you decorated my bedroom at 3 am for my Birthday last year. You snuck in tons of balloons while I was distracted and hid them until the night. You went above and beyond to make me feel special. You took me on my first ever Dart train ride to Klyde Warren Park with my babies. It is now going to be my favorite place. I promise to always dip my feet in the water fountains in memory of you. The late night talks at your aunts house and game nights at your grandparents is something I am really going to miss. I love you so much. Thank you for loving me and my babies. -Alexandra

“ I remember running around at your family's house, laughing until it hurt and spending nights talking about what we'd do when we got older. Your beautiful soul will be missed so much by everyone. I am grateful I got to grow up with you. Although it was our reunion when I was last in your presence, I still have thoughts, pictures, and movies that make me smile. I'll never forget you, Bre!

“Breana was always smiling! Every time I saw her she would always come over to talk even if it was only for a second. She loved catching up with everyone she knew. Not long ago she saw my wife and daughter at Cici's and made sure Avery had quarters for the games. Such a loving person.

“*Breana had such a beautiful, forgiving soul. Anytime I saw her she wore a gorgeous smile and never hesitated to say hello. “ Breana was among the most genuine in our class of 2012. She always went out of her way to be a friend and put a smile on someone’s face. I truly hate this for her family. My thoughts and prayers are with you guys! ”
