“ Bruce is my cousin. During one my visits to Texas my Uncle Charles and My Aunt Florence let Bruce and Gina stay home so they could have time with their cousin from Pennsylvania. We road bikes all day. When my father came back from Vietnam we all went camping and water skiing. When my husband and my three kids we visited our Benedict relatives my husband went fishing with Bruce Uncle Charles and Uncle time. My husband had such a good time. My heart breaks for my Benedict family and prayers are always sent your way. With love the Vitt family

“ Kay and I were totally caught by surprise. Bruce was a good friend, pallet supplier to our company and occasional fishing guide. He taught my partner Joe and I his favorite Lake Fork big bass secret and we have caught some monsters with him! We were skeptical at first, but it too one pass to make us believers! We have passed on the joy by taking some dear friends out and guiding them into their lifetime big fish using that technique. While we are so sad with his sudden departure, we are joyful in his destination! As Paul said in Philippians 1:21, “for me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.” None of us can even imagine the joy that he is experiencing right now in the presence of Jesus. But, for Bruce’s family, we pray that peace for you that passes all understanding and for you to enjoy the memories of a dad, granddad and husband who loved you all dearly.
