“ To the Davis family I would just like to express my sincere condolences during this time. I never had the pleasure of meeting Bryan but I did have the honor of getting to know his lovely wife who I met during a Hilton training class. She spoke so very highly of him and their son and how much fun they had together. I would like to leave these words of encouragement with the family and friends, "For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. Oh death where is your sting? Oh grave where is your victory?" Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning. You will all be in my prayers.
