

Bryan Mosley

November 17, 1970 - August 25, 2021

Bryan Mosley, longtime resident of Elmo, passed away August 25, 2021. Bryan was born on Nov. 17, 1970 in Terrell to Richard and Vicki (Simpson) Mosley, both of whom preceded him in death along with his grandparents, Avon Ray and Juanita Samples Mosley and Onie Sr. and Myrtle Simpson. Bryan graduated from Terrell High School in 1989 and worked several years as a pressman for The Terrell Tribune and Wills Point Chronicle. His real love was hunting and fishing and getting to be in the outdoors was the time he loved best. He and his family, especially his sons, always had their hunting seasons planned out every year and many treasured memories will be cherished of those times.

Bryan is survived by his sons, Dalton and Colby Mosley, both of Wills Point; his brothers: Brad Mosley and his wife, Shelly, of Grand Saline and Matt Mosley and his wife, Monica, of Wills Point as well as numerous nieces, nephews, extended relatives and a host of friends, all of whom will miss him greatly.

The family is planning a private inurnment to be held at a later date, at Elmo Cemetery, where Bryan will be laid to rest with his parents.
