The lessons learned in business with his family garnered Sterling a respected reputation of professionalism and honesty. His attention to the details and his commitment to ensuring that each customer was well served helped grow the business. Sterling was a longtime member of First Baptist Church where he loved attending the Richard Hunter Men's Sunday School class. He enjoyed any activity that involved his being able to use his hands to build and create projects like birdhouses and shutters for his home. Sterling's talent wasn't limited to wood in that he also constructed a full concession stand from stainless steel! He also enjoyed gardening and tending his flowers in his yard at home. Many times, Sterling could be seen on his front porch and walking around his home, making sure that each plant, tree and shrub had exactly what they needed to grow beautifully. In 2006, he married Janice and their fondness and love for each other was easily seen by all. A loving man with a smile for all, Sterling will be missed by many.

“ I was honored and privileged to have Sterling Chilcoat as my neighbor for 25 yrs.He was always there if I needed any help with something,or just to talk.He loved building things,and fixing things the untraditional way 😊! I remember when he built a dog house for my dog Sophie.She loved it and loved Sterling.He would bring her dog treats to the fence,he said jump,she would jump really high to get that treat,lol 😂.When he was puttering around outside,watering his plants and trees,and yard,which was every day! Lol! Sophie would set at the fence watch him,start barking for his attention! I will cherish the memories and time I had with him.Sterling was a blessing in my life and he will be missed.I pray for peace and comfort for his family during this time.God Bless you Kathy Ratliff
