

Clifford Dixon Coble II

October 9, 1986 - December 24, 2023

On December 24, 2023, Clifford Dixon Coble II, 37, of Forney, TX, peacefully passed away. Born on October 9, 1986, in Dallas, TX, to Steven and Tammy Coble, Cliff's vibrant spirit, comic flair and love for sports defined his life.

Clifford's formative years were spent in Richardson, Texas. Engaging in a variety of sports such as T-ball, baseball, basketball, soccer, roller hockey, and football, he developed a strong athletic background. His passion for soccer persisted during his time at Berkner High School, where he actively participated in the sport. After successfully completing his education at Berkner in 2005, he left a lasting impression on the school's sports program.

His passion for the Dallas Cowboys, a bond shared with his Grandfather, uncles and friends, held a dream of witnessing their return to the Super Bowl. He enjoyed his Sunday football games and spent the day cheering them on.

Cliff's exuberance reached its pinnacle this year as his cherished Texas Rangers secured a triumphant World Series victory, a moment of celebration that resonated throughout the entire state. An avid collector of Texas Rangers bobbleheads, Cliff attended every home game, relishing these moments alongside his mother and girlfriend. Even when work commitments kept him away, he ensured his mother represented him in the stands, so as not to miss adding to his bobblehead collection.

Cliff possessed a unique and unparalleled sense of humor. Every interaction with him left people laughing, with smiles adorning their faces. His humor and wit were truly one-of-a-kind, and we'll miss the joy he brought. We are certain that we'll never experience laughter quite like that again.

Amid life's pursuits, Cliff and his partner, Nicole, eagerly anticipated moving into their new home by year's end—a testament to their hard work and a source of great joy. The couple looked forward to embarking on the journey of starting a family in the coming year.

Cliff is preceded in death by his father, Steven Dixon Coble, stepfather Terry Monjure, grandparents Clifford and Joan Coble, and Aunt Cyndi Coble. Left to cherish his memory are his mother, Tammy Coble; stepbrothers Tim and AJ Monjure; grandparents Thomas and Joyce Bojarski; Aunt Leeia and her husband Robert; Uncle Thomas and his wife Sherry; Uncle William and his wife Stephanie; cousins Tara Wiggins, Krista Bojarski, his girlfriend, Nicole Banister, his beloved dachshund dog Daisy and his many friends.

Services to honor Clifford will be held at 1:00 PM on Thursday, January 4, 2024, at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel in Terrell, Texas, followed by interment at Hillcrest Cemetery in Forney, Texas. Visitation hours will be from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM on Wednesday, January 3, 2024.
