

Clinton Ballagh

February 6, 1987 - February 19, 2019

Clinton Collier Ballagh, of Forney, passed away Feb. 19, 2019. He was born Feb. 6, 1987 in Tyler, Texas to Scott Richard Ballagh and Loraine Frances Collier, both of whom preceded him in death along with his grandmother, Sandra Zgonce and grandfathers: Charles Zgonce and Carroll Collier.

Clint was a 2005 graduate of Forney High School where he was known for his fun loving personality and wonderful sense of humor. His smile was the first thing that people noticed about him as well as how he could always put a smile on others' face. His intelligence was incredible in that Clint knew "a lot about a lot" and his insightful wit and observations made every conversation completely enthralling. He loved art , creating poetry, any kind of music as well as his family and friends. Later in life, Clint found that he could love even more when he was blessed with his son, Auberon. His son brought him so much joy in his life and being Auberon's dad was the one thing that brought Clint immeasurable joy. "But in all of the sadness, when you're feeling that your heart is empty, and lacking, you've got to remember that grief isn't the absence of love. Grief is the proof that love is still there."— Tessa Shaffer

Clint is survived by his son, Auberon Charles Ballagh; siblings: Stephanie Silvers and her husband, Patrick, Mitchell Howell, Anna Howell, Charles Ballagh; grandmother, Mildred Collier; step-father, Chester Roy Snyder; Auberon's mother, Samantha Simon; nieces and nephews: Kendall Silvers, Breanna Rogers, Elise Rogers, Reese Tune, Londyn Silvers, Cole Silvers and Abigail Ballagh as well as numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and a host of friends.

A celebration of his life will be at 2:30pm, Monday, Feb. 25, 2019 at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel.

“ Several years ago Clint and I were driving over a bridge in Dallas in his white ford taurus. We overlooked a bank of snow and told each other we would never forget that moment. It's funny that one of us brought that up this year. We both still remember. I'll never forget.
