“ I am so grateful to have met Mr. McKnight through his granddaughter Sabrina and her mother. The very briefs moments shared touched me deeply. Every time we spoke he always remembered the last conversation we had and made a point to show me how much he cared about knowing who not only I was also my family. What a wonderful demonstration of a life well lived. Thank you Sabrina and all your family for allowing me to be apart.

“ Danny was not my Uncle by blood, but I always called him Uncle Danny. I lost my dad as a kid and Uncle Danny and the entire family took me in over 30 years ago. Even before I turned my life around, Danny always told me I was special and I was going to make it. He saw something in me that I didn't even see. He had a God given gift of seeing people the way Jesus did. I wish we all saw people the way Uncle Danny did. My heart is broken for the family, but I am rejoicing cause I know Danny is face to face with Jesus. What a beautiful site that must be. I love you Uncle Danny
