David Joe Hogan passed away September 25, 2017 in Mesquite, Tx. Born June 27, 1953 in Dallas, Tx to Clarence Durwood and Linnie Catherine Osborne Hogan, both of whom preceded him in death along with his sisters: Faye Peters and Shirley Walsh, brother, Clarence Hogan. David was also reunited with the love of his life and his soulmate, Diana Green, who passed away before him in 2015.

David graduated from Mesquite High School in 1971 after which he began his lifelong career in auto repair. He loved cars and loved working with his hands and he worked for many dealerships and businesses that allowed him to serve the customer honestly and with integrity. David worked for Horn Williams Ford in Dallas, Jess Barbee Chevrolet in Terrell and Lakeside Chevrolet in Rockwall he also worked for J.W. Barrow Tire in Terrell and Rockwall Tire and Battery. In his spare time, David loved riding his motorcycles, watching NASCAR racing and football. A keen mind that stayed as active as his hands, David was always building or improving things and in the last few years, he had built a BBQ pit smoker which took several years to complete due to his continual additions and “upgrades” to make it the best it could be! “ Truly sorry for the family's loss. Even though I have not seen David in a while, Jane kept me updated about him. Will always have the many fun childhood memories of riding bicycles and playing with Kay and David.

“ I spend little over 9 years with David as his wife and mother of his children. He was a kind and caring man but not much for words. I want to thank him for the two beautiful children that we shared together and he will be missed dearly.

I guess my memory was when I drove his prize car (Chevelle). It was as souped up and ran like a race horse. He always told me to put oil in it before I took off. Well one day I did not put oil in it and I blew the engine up and pistons, rings, all kinds of engine parts were all over Hwy 205. That was the hardest phone call I even made, tell him that I had blew his car up. As usual not many words, just came and go it.
