

Dorothy Mae White McClung

June 16, 1934 - August 7, 2024

Dorothy Mae McClung passed away peacefully to the presence of her Savior on Aug. 7, 2024. Dorothy was born June 16, 1934 to her parents, L.D. and Maggie White, both of whom also welcomed her into Heaven along with her siblings: Bill White, Rachel Holland and Barbara Griffin and the father of her beloved daughters, Garner McClung.

Dorothy was a lifetime resident of the Elmo and Terrell area and she worked for many years at Ranger Boot Factory in Terrell. She was a lifetime and devoted member of Terrell First Assembly of God Church where she was involved in many ministries and developed countless, long-lasting friendships.

Dorothy loved to watch a good western on TV and she spent many happy days watching them with family. She was an expert baker and her many treats were baked with not only great taste but also with love. Her grandchildren brought her an immense amount of joy and Dorothy truly enjoyed watching them grow and then have children of their own. Her independence was a hallmark of Dorothy's character and she would be the one to always take care of what needed taking care of throughout her and her family's lives. Her yard was also a place of joy for her and she truly looked forward to mowing her own grass and tending to her plants and flowers. A beautiful woman with grace and kindness, Dorothy will be missed by everyone who knew her.

She is survived by her daughters: Phyllis Rasbury and husband, Michael; Wanda Eubank and husband, Ricky, Jann Martin and husband, Henry; grandchildren: Mark Rasbury and wife, Kelli, Mindy Johnston and husband,

B.J., Melissa Robinson and Alex Rasbury; great grandchildren: Bailey, Madison, Kade, and Emerson Rasbury; Mailey and Brendon Mason, Austyn Gray, Easton and Alli Johnston; great-great grandchild, Paisley Rasbury; sisters: Mittie Bowden and Carolyn Davis and husband, Jackie as well as several nieces, nephews, extended family, her church family and many friends.

A celebration of Dorothy's life will be at 10:00am, Friday, Aug. 9, 2024 at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel where all are welcome to share the many special memories of Dorothy.
