

Douglas Wayne Beheler

August 4, 1933 - December 9, 2023

Douglas Wayne Beheler passed away peacefully with family at his side on December 9, 2023 in Terrell, Texas. Douglas, also known as Doug, was born in Quinlan, Texas on August 4, 1933 to Orval Clarence Beheler and Betty Maurice Beheler. Douglas was preceded in death by his parents and his sisters, Jean DeWald and Ann Downer, along with the mother of his children, Johnnie Cheshire Beheler.

Fishing was a passion for Doug, and he pursued bass on any body of water he would find, but he would catch and release to allow the bass to grow bigger so they could be caught another day. Doug graduated from Quinlan High School and went on to serve in the US Army for two years before beginning his career in surveying. After spending several years as a surveyor, Doug transitioned his work to the Extruders Aluminum Plant where he eventually retired after many hard-working years. Doug enjoyed his time on the lake fishing, but most of all he enjoyed spending his time with his family.

Left to cherish Doug's memories are his daughter, Beverly Whitus and husband Joe, son Steven Beheler, grandson Weston Davis and wife Glenna, and granddaughter Linda Culverhouse and husband Clint. Also left to carry on Doug's legacy are his great grandchildren Tambrie, Weston Glen, Kaleb, Dawson and Cameron, along with numerous nieces, nephews, family and friends, all of whom will miss Doug very much.

Funeral services are scheduled for Wednesday, December 13, 2023 beginning at 12:00 p.m. at the Max Slayton Funeral Chapel. The family will receive guest one hour prior to service time.
