

Dylan Harrison

July 12, 2013 - August 16, 2025

Dylan Sophia Harrison passed away on August 16, 2025. She was the only child, born on July 12, 2013, in Plano, Texas, to Mitchell and Heather Harrison. Also known as Dillie Picklez, Dylan made the world brighter with her big heart and joyful spirit. Everyone who met her adored her gentle and kind nature.

Dylan's life was full of fun and adventure. She loved singing; especially karaoke, singing her favorite songs with friends. She taught herself to play many songs on the piano by watching YouTube videos. She could draw just about anything she set her eyes on, but didn't care for coloring the pages. She was truly gifted when it came to music and art. Homeschooled her entire school journey, and part of a wonderful co-op, Dylan loved to learn, create, and spend time with friends and family.

Dylan was always on the move. She practiced gymnastics, and had just mastered her double back handspring, as well as practiced aerial silks, with her favorite positions getting to do flips on the silks and the basic butterfly. She also enjoyed archery. Whatever activity she was learning, Dylan put her whole heart into it.

Dylan loved wolves from a young age. Her room is filled with different wolf items and seems like half her shirts have wolves on them. She once went to the zoo and howled at the wolves hoping they'd reciprocate. In her household, Harry Potter was held in high regard and Dylan knew from the age of 3 that she was a born Slytherin. One of her most beloved characters was Professor Lupin a werewolf. She loved to play both online and table games and utilized her alternate identity, Lilly Wolfington, as her character's name.

She was such a thoughtful girl, always caring deeply about the people around her, and loving with all her heart. Her sweetness and energy made her a joy to be around. You rarely saw her without a smile and excitement in her eyes.

Dylan will always be remembered for her creativity, kindness, and the happiness she brought into the lives of everyone she knew.

She lived life with excitement and care, leaving behind so many wonderful memories that her family, friends, and community will always treasure. Dylan's spirit will live on in every drawing, every song, and every happy memory she created.

Left to grieve Dylan's unforgettable memory are her parents, Mitchell and Heather Harrison; grandparents: Mike and Cindy Harrison, Kathy Horton, and Gordan Barnsley; uncle, Thomas Horton and wife Jaci, with their son, Cillian; aunts: Hannah Gunderson and husband Daniel, Tracie Witt and husband, Jim, with their children: Bailey, Emily, James, and Zoe, along with extended family, and so many treasured friends from all over the world, all of whom will miss Dylan greatly.

Services for Dylan will be held at 4:00 p.m., Saturday, August 23, 2025 at the Max Slayton Funeral Chapel in Terrell, Texas. The family will receive friends from 6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. on Friday, August 22, 2025 at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial contributions be made to <https://www.saintfranciswolfsanctuary.org/make-a-donation> as wolves were Dylan's favorite animal and she had the dream of becoming a vet and opening her own wolf sanctuary.

“ Dear Heather and Mitch,

We are so deeply sorry for the loss of your sweet Dylan. I am Tim's mom, and over the years he has shared so many beautiful stories about your family. Our grandson Brandon has also spoken often of how much he enjoyed playing games online with Dylan.

Words feel so small at a time like this, but please know that Dylan's life has touched people who never had the chance to meet her. I've shared your story, and many people are holding you in their hearts and prayers.

This is an unimaginable tragedy, and we hope you feel surrounded by love and support as you walk through this painful time.

*With deepest sympathy,

“ Dear Heather and Mitchell,

We are deeply, deeply sorry for the sudden and premature loss of your sweet Dylan. Words cannot fully express the sorrow we feel for you both and your loved ones during this difficult time.

Dylan was such a bright, creative, and loving spirit: her warmth and kindness touched everyone who had the privilege of knowing her, including Pam.

We can't begin to imagine the pain you're going through, but please know that we are thinking of you and holding you close in our hearts.

If you need anything, whether it's a listening ear, help with anything at all at work and beyond, or just a quiet moment of support - we're here for you.

May the beautiful memories of Dylan's joy and love bring you comfort, and may her light continue to shine brightly in your hearts. She will always live in our hearts as a free and happy soul, playing and dancing just like the wolves she always adored.

Please take all the time you need to grieve at your pace and for as long as it's needed.

*With all our love and deepest sympathy,
Pam & Giovanna*

“ Dylan was my sons' best and oldest friend. As a fellow homeschooler, she was just as quirky and fun-loving as my boys, and so they all became fast friends. I can't imagine their friend group without her in it. And I'm heartbroken to know that they will have to continue on without their Dillie Picklez. She was one-of-a-kind, and we are better for knowing her.

“ Dylan’s beautiful soul is always shining in every picture- with the biggest and purest heart and she will forever be one of the sisters. Since we moved to Texas there wasn’t a birthday or celebration that our family had where you weren’t with us and we are forever grateful for the time we had with you. We love you.
