February 27, 1932 - November 23, 2020

Elizabeth Blanche Robinson Mohnkern, of Terrell, passed away peacefully on November 23, 2020. Elizabeth was born February 27, 1932 to Jesse H. and Florence B. Robinson in Oil City, Pennsylvania where she lived for many years until the early 1950s. After marrying the love of her life, Leonard Mohnkern, in Oil City, they then moved to Warren, OH, where they began their lives together. She and Len had two beautiful children, Charles and Susan, and in 1968, the family moved to Terrell. Elizabeth began working at E.B. Mott, Co., (Mott's Five and Dime) where, for over 25 years, every customer was greeted with her bright smile at the cash register or her helpful personality in the aisles. When Elizabeth was not at work, she was a dedicated and devoted mom. She loved spending time with her kids, taking them to any and all activities and being their biggest supporter in all of their endeavors. Elizabeth and Len were faithful members of the Church of the Nazarene, she loved her church and her church family, where they were happy to be involved in the church's outreach events and making lasting friendships. Elizabeth is preceded in death by her loving husband, Len; her parents, brother, Richard Robinson; half-siblings: Emma Beals, Mrs. Russell Snee, Mrs. John Piatt, Gordon Robinson, W. Ray Robinson, and David N. Robinson. “ Liz trained me when I started at Mott's. That was when we had to price each item. The cash register was a push button AND we had to know how to give the proper amount of change! No read out telling us the amount of change! Can you imagine counting change from the total of sale to the amount of money paid. Liz was great with customers, too. I haven't seen her in a long time, but I will never forget working with her as a teenager. Susan, Chuck, Ray, Micheal, & Wendy my prayers are with all of you. Sending hugs your way, Sharon
