“ Uncle Everett, you will be missed. I'll miss running into you at the Dollar General, where you often walked. You were usually in there saying hello to everybody. They all knew you and you knew them. You weren't afraid of hard work. I remember seeing you trying to paint a house and build a fence, even with cancer. Your quick wit made me laugh. I'll never forget how you tricked me with your "hereafter" joke. Thanksgiving won't be the same on the Stephens side.

“ Barbara is my neighbor and I met Everett and will remember him for always having a smile on his face and his caring nature. He enjoyed talking with people and getting to know them. I will miss him calling me Neighbor and talking with him.

Barbara and Everett have always been close and I thank Barbara for taking care of him in his last days. He will always be remembered for his love of God and for his special calling in his life. "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me, though he may die, he shall live." John 11:25
Barbara, if there is anything that I can do for you, please call on me. My prayers are with you and your family. God bless you.

“ I grew up with the Stephens family on Lamar Street in Terrell. Spent a lot of time playing with Everett and Floyd. They were good friends. I miss those times. To his family, hang in there. Lean on your faith. That is what Mrs. Stephens would do. RIP Everett.
