

Faye Marie Wigley

January 3, 1941 - May 27, 2018

Faye Wigley passed away peacefully on May 27, 2018 in Dallas, Texas. Faye was born January 3, 1941 in Birmingham, AL to Marion Jeanette (Morris) Vincent and Francis Marion Vincent, Jr., both of whom preceded her in death. Faye was a woman who deeply loved her family. She married the love of her life, Don Wigley, in Oklahoma on June 21, 1958 and for over 59 years they shared the joy of raising their family together. She and Don were blessed with five children. Faye devoted her life to making sure that Don and the children were provided with everything they needed. Later, her grandchildren became the lights of her life and spending time with them was the best part of every day. Faye loved to cook and sew for family and friends and she willingly shared her many signature dishes and designs. Her love for her family will be a legacy that they each will cherish and continue to pass on to future generations.

Faye is survived by her beloved husband, Don Wigley of Dallas; children: Karla Wigley of Dallas, Steven Wigley and wife, Vickie, of Kansas City, Laurie Wigley of Rowlett, Paula Akers and husband, Greg, of Heath, Zachary Wigley and wife, Karina, of Dallas; grandchildren: Larkin, Michael, Steven Jr., Erin, Jason, Andrew, Sam, Ryan, Taylor, Jordan, Presleigh, Madison, Knox and Harper; 6 great grandchildren, and brother, Frank M. Vincent, as well as other extended family members and many friends who loved her and will miss her dearly.

Graveside service will be held at 2:00pm, Thursday, May 31, 2018 at Campground Cemetery with Rev. John Lowrie officiating. For those wishing, memorials in honor of Faye may be made to the charity of your choice.
