Gerald Plummer, Jr.

August 7, 1948 – November 25, 2025

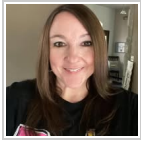

Gerald was born and raised in East Dallas, the older of two sons born to Martha and Gerald Plummer, Sr., both of whom preceded him in death. He was also preceded in death by his two wives, Patricia (2014) and Julia (2024). He is survived by his brother, Perry Plummer, and Perry's wife, Jeanette, of Mesquite, TX; his older daughter, Sunni Marrs, and her husband, Corey, of Dallas, TX; and his younger daughter, Shelli Ragle, and her husband, David, of Hughes Springs, TX. Additionally, he is survived by his grandchildren: Erin Chamberlain, Megan Juarez, Christian Frank, Dominick Ragle, and Noah Ragle, as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and great-grandchildren. Gerald is further survived by his stepdaughter, Amy Sletten, and her husband, Keith, of Canton, TX, along with their children.

Known affectionately as "Jeeery," a nickname lovingly coined by his first wife of 43 years, Patricia, Gerald was a lover of Legos, useless information, and storytelling. He always "knew a guy," and from there a tale would begin. A house full of women often meant the phrase "calm down" got him into trouble, but it became part of the family lore. And when frustrations hit, his PG go-to was always, "Blasted!"

Most of him died with the passing of his first wife, and the rest of him followed shortly after his second wife's passing. He has been so deeply missed, and the best version of him lives on in our memories.
