She married Willie Peterson Sr. in 1952 and together they were blessed with many years of love, family and friends. She loved to cook for everybody and her recipes were enjoyed so much that she had her very own cookbook printed for all. She worked for the American National Bank as a hostess for over 25 years and her beautiful smile and warm personality made every visitor feel like they were home. A devoted wife and dedicated mother and grandmother, she will be dearly missed by all who knew her. Geraldine leaves to cherish her memories Willie Peterson Sr. (husband), Willie Jr. (son) , Debra (daughter) Alvin, Edmund (son) Julius (son). Geraldine loved her family and friends.
