“ Our family enjoyed so much the fellowship we had together as Jake would lead us into the throne room where we all would experience the beautiful presence of the Lord fall upon us during each service. He was so anointed to sing and flow in the spirit. I just know his family will keep those praises flowing. Our prayers are with you Brandi and your kids. We send our Love and we are so sorry about this as our hearts are sadden. Keep your faith and eyes fixed on the Lord as your strength. Moore family Terry & Pam & kids

“ I remember going to the Halloween festivities at Ables Springs water when we were kids, and placing chase in the living room after we watched the Lion King with my grandmother yelling at us to slow down. He was always so respectful and kind a d was a wonderful friend. It was a pleasure to have had him touch my life.

“ One of the most touching memories I have was on a day that was very hard for me. It was the day I laid my sweet Brother Johnny to rest at the DFW Cemetery. It was on April 4, 2013, normally weather would be good, but this day was rainy, freezing cold and so windy you could barely stand. My heart was so heavy as Johnny joined our parents in the Lord's presence. I was about to read from Isaiah 40:27-31 when I looked up and saw my precious God-son standing there! His smile instantly warmed my heart and gave me strength to speak. After that, I walked over, he wrapped his loving, strong arms around me and said, "I am so sorry." He will never know how much I love him and what he meant to me. RIP my dear Jake. I have always loved you more than you know.

“ Didn't get a chance to meet Jake personally, but we were on the same job and came about the same time... From the guys that I have met like Brandon which known Jake for awhile now... The way they speak of him I know he was a real great man, husband, father, pretty much great all around... My thoughts and prayers go out to his wife and kids foremost but also to all his family and friends... RIP Jake!!!
