

James Flanagan III

April 29, 2022

James Belford Flanagan III passed away with family by his side on April 29, 2022. James was born in Beaumont, Texas in 1956 to James Belford (JB) Jr. and Frankie Flanagan, both of whom preceded him in death along with a brother, Donnie Flanagan.

James had several hobbies he enjoyed in life. Tending to his garden and plants was one of these great hobbies for James. He loved when plants were in full bloom. He also had a great affection for animals of many types, including cats and dogs. Another favorite past-time of James' was to play tennis. He was a man with many skills and abilities. James was a warehouse manager in the latter part of his career, and had previously worked at Dr. Delphinium.

James is survived by his wife, Dana Marett of Forney, and his daughter, Harley Drummond. Also surviving is James' sister, Connie Flanagan, who lives in California.

The family is planning a celebration of life for James at a later date.

“ Even though we never met I feel a deep friendship with you James. Your kind heart and and kind words meant a lot. Sorry I never got around to sit and have a good conversation and hot cup of Java with you but in spirit we've come together my friend. My heart goes out to your family and pray GOD comfort them during this very difficult time. You join the angels that will watch over us. I will always have a place in my heart for you. You will be truly missed! ❤️🙏

“ miss you more than words can express. You helped me & my mom in so many ways over the years & my heart is now broken 💔. You & my mom were supposed to sit in the front yard & yell at random things getting into the yard. My heart is hurt for everybody & I know you are looking down on us helping us try to stay strong like you were. I love you Jamie to Pluto & back. Always & forever- Amanda R.

“ I can't believe I am writing this. We are supposed to grow old together. Sit on the porch and yell at people together. Now I have to do it alone. I can't tell you how much I miss you and how much you mean to me. I think you know though. You are loved by so many people. I'll see you on the other side my sister, tell Billy and Scotty hello for me. Love you forever Jamie B.

“ I'm gonna miss you, you old queen, you were a good friend to billy and you were a good friend to me and my boys and that is a precious and rare thing. Your leaving leaves a much smaller world. Give my best to billy and all of the old gang and a treat to all of the 4 legged ones too!❤️
