“ I had the opportunity to meet Mr. Gallagher initially through get togethers at our church where we would play hockey. He would play goalie and I don't know if I ever scored on him or not but I wanted to because he would smack talk and make you want to score to make him quiet. I also enjoyed talking with him about technology and seeing some of the tech he had at the house. One time I helped him find a good microphone for his christian audio recording. After doing that, he bought me the same microphone as a gift. His acts of generosity were great examples to me.

Although he loved hockey and technology, his first love was obviously his Savior Jesus Christ. As I got to know him more, I appreciated his kindness to me and heart to serve others and tell them of Christ. He also encouraged others to do the same. I'm honored and thankful to have known Mr. Gallagher.

“ When Karl and I were just poor Bible college students, Jim and Narda became our best friends, along with Chuck & Rose Kimmig. Jim inspired us with his enthusiastic, tenacious love of Jesus. We spent many hours doing ministry together as couples--the wives would stay home and pray while the men went out on the streets of Nashville to share the gospel late at night. One of my favorite stories was how Jim witnessed to a Satanist and had the Satanist crying before it was over. Oh so many precious memories of meals, music, and ministry with Jim. I picture him running through those pearly gates and jumping into the arms of Jesus. I was not surprised to hear that he had a special ministry with refugees. Jim's life example inspired and challenged us to step out and plant a church in upstate New York at age 50ish. His life will continue to serve as an inspiration for us until we all meet again on the other side. This earth's loss is Heaven's gain.

I just found out about Jim's passage into heaven. I'm sorry for your loss Narda. By all accounts Jim was an exceptional advocate for Jesus and a very compassionate person. I'm sure he is missed by many. I pray that God is taking good care of you and the family, and I send my love to all. Nadine Thomas (Noll)
