

James Patrick Wood

August 24, 1941 - December 12, 2024

James Patrick Wood passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones on December 12, 2024 in Brownwood, Texas. James had a hard-fought battle with cancer but ultimately won the battle with total healing and completeness. James was born to Phillip Alexander and Lillian Juanita Wood, both of whom preceded him in death. Also preceding James in death are two wives, Jerri Rasbury Wood and Michele Larmer Wood, son Randy Wood, step-son Mark Larmer, grandson Jason Wood and daughter-in-law Karen Wood.

James was born on August 24, 1941 in Terrell, Texas and had his upbringing in the Campground community. James married the love of his life, Jerri Rasbury in December of 1959, the same year he graduated from Terrell High School and enlisted in the Army. The family quickly grew and Pat Wayne and Randy Wood were added to the growing family. In James' professional career he was a Chief Driver/Engineer for the Dallas Fire Department and retired from working there. In his spare time, James loved to hunt and fish; it was not uncommon to find him on the bank of a pond casting a line, or in the field with a rifle in hand. James was not a man of many words, but when he did speak, you were wise to listen and remember what he said.

Left to carry on James' legacy are his son Pat Wayne Wood, grandsons Randy "Tooter" Wood II, Chase Wood, and Chad Wood, granddaughter Kari Wood and step-son Chris Larmer. Also left to cherish his memories are his brother Bill Wood, sister Phylis Kay Hale, numerous great grandchildren, nieces nephews and a host of friends.

A graveside service is scheduled for Thursday, December 19, 2024 at College Mound Cemetery, Terrell, Texas at 11:00 am. A visitation will be held on Wednesday evening, December 18, 2024 at the Max Slayton Funeral Chapel from 5 – 7 pm.
