

Janet Lee Hutto

May 7, 1956 - March 15, 2022

Janet Hutto passed away into the presence of the Lord, in Terrell Texas March 15th 2022. Janet was born May 7th 1953 at St. Luke's in Milwaukee Wisconsin to the parents of John Abbredaris and Colleen Barker-Abbredaris, both whom proceeded her in death along with her husband Troy Hutto, sister Karen Walker and granddaughter Keylee Bennett.

Janet was a stay at home mom. She loved doing yard work and being outside. Always on the move. She liked planting flowers. Also she loved candles and even made them. She also likes old western movies, crime tv shows like NCIS and Law & Order. She loved listening to Patsy Cline too.

Janet also dabbled in cooking. She made Hungarian goulash and pasta salads. She was a very kind-hearted woman that loved her family. She will be truly missed.

Janet is survived by her daughter Leslie Hutto, son-in-law David Bennett, granddaughter Lily Bennett, sister Debra Buckett, brother-in-law Douglas Buckett, sister Sherry Abbredaris-Hanson, brother John Abbredaris, and as well as many extended family and friends, all of whom will treasure and remember her always and forever.

Services are being planned by family at a later date.

“ The Abbrederis family were our neighbors many years ago. Janet would babysit our children from time to time. She has a permanent place in our hearts. Sorry that I never met her daughter and family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
