“ J.D. was always a great friend to me. I just seen him when my dad was hospitalized with covid & he told me to tell him that he needed to get well & out of there bc there aren't many of "us" left. Who would have ever thought that those would be his last words to me & that he'd be next? God love him! R.I.P. J. D. Fly highly friend. Love u always, Red

“ Lisa

I need Jerry David for a very long time and loved him with all my heart. He was a wild one for sure but he love his family and his boys. We had some good times and bad times but he had a good heart under all that tough stuff.I haven't seen him in over 30 years but he is still has a place in my heart. I am for sorry for the families , but I feel he is in peace!
