He was preceded in death by both of his parents as well as his two brothers, Jimmy Lee Kines and David "Doc" Kines.

“ Margaret, there are no words I can say about Jerry that you do not already know. He was such an influence in my life. From mother teaching him in her sunday school class at South Bowie, to him teaching me in his sunday school class, you two it seems have always been apart of our lives and I'm so thankful. He was a true man of God who loved his Savior, his Margaret and his family. My heart aches for your loss sweet lady and that of Randy, Wendy and the other family members. I know one day we will see him again. Please know I love you dearly and praying for you continually. With love and prayers,

I have known Jerry for almost 60 years, ever since Margaret was my babysitter during the summer while my parents were busy cutting and bailing hay. In all those years, I have never heard of Jerry saying an unkind word or doing an unkind thing. I believe he was loved and respected by all those who knew him. Jesus is lucky to have Jerry with him in heaven. Condolences to Margaret, Randy, Wendy, and the rest of the family.
