

Jim Nash

December 18, 1934 - April 25, 2017

James Donald Nash (Jim) passed away April 25, 2017. He was born Dec. 18, 1934 in Rockwall, Texas to William and Myrtle (Foster) Nash, both of whom preceded him in death along with his brother, Max Nash, and sister, Laquita Cookston.

Jim had talent for always being on the go. He loved people and people loved him. He had an easy-going personality that enabled immediate friendships in everyone he met. He loved to tell stories, sit and visit with family, friends and co-workers and his kindness and generosity were hallmarks of his outstanding personal character. Jim worked for Texas Instruments and after retiring with over 30 years of loyal service. Never one to stay idle, Jim opened J and M Custom Caps, a successful independent business that helped him to make even more friends with his wonderful and positive attitude. He enjoyed his lottery tickets and he also made time to wind down by driving on country roads enjoying every bit of the rural and peaceful countryside that he loved so much. A gentle spirit with the world's biggest heart to help others, Jim will be truly missed.

He leaves to cherish his memory his beloved wife, Margo Nash of Terrell; children: Kevin Nash of Dallas, Karen Cox and husband, Johnny, of Balch Springs, Kathy Carver of Alabama, Scott Nash and wife, Beverly, of Houston; grandchildren: Michael Hufford, Bryan Hufford, Marc Hufford, R.J. Prisk, Tess Carver, and Shelbie Brown; great grandchildren: Sabrina, Zacary, Nathan, Alexis, Abby, Braden, Chris, Lilly, R.J., Jr., Sanaa and Omari; sister, Wanda Castle as well as many other extended family and a host of friends.

Funeral service and celebration of Jim's life will be held at 2:00pm, Tuesday, May 2, 2017 at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel with the family receiving friends beginning at 1:00pm to service time.

“ Some of my best memories were with my Uncle Jimbo! I'll always cherish the weeks I spent with him in the country. I loved the 5am wake up calls so we could head to his favorite truck stop diner for the most amazing chicken fried steak and eggs. Working on the dune buggy together, riding the tractor and day dreaming about one day having a ranch and horses while fishing in the best fishing hole around. Such a special bond we had. I still have my shirt and cap he let me make in his shop and I remember how much fun it was to do. He made us laugh by sticking out his teeth and that "beachball in his belly" was the best place to sit or lay my head when we watched TV. I was and always will be his suger-duger-do! Oh how I wish I could hug him one more time. I love you Uncle Jimbo! Thank you so much for the amazing memories!

“ That is a great obituary about a great man. Jim Nash was more than a brother-in-law, he was a real friend. Jim got me my first real job when I really needed one. In fact, Jim helped out a lot of people in that regard. Everytime I think of Jim I think of his smile and the stories he would tell. I'll remember the early morning breakfasts at the local diner. You could never sleep in when you visited Jim and Margo's place. He was always on the go. I will miss the man, but he will always be in my heart and mind.

“ Uncle Jimbo, you have and always will hold a special place in my heart. Some of my favorite memories with you were riding on the tractor with you, picking cotton, catching 40 fish in 30 minutes out of your man made pond, and driving 45 minutes to get the best chicken fried steak in town. You were always so sweet and such an honest hard working man. I wish I could hug your neck again. I love you and will cherish the memories forever.

“ My thoughts and now memories of Jim are centered around his love for my children (his nieces). Uncle "Jimbo" always went out of his way to embrace my family and my daughters.
Visits with Jimbo were always special as he envolved Jennifer and Ashley in everything from letting them drive the tractor to introducing them to the gourmet delight of a good chicken fried steak.
Uncle "Jimbo" was a special man and friend, who's "upbeat" personality and love of life were the characteristics I will always remember.
