

Joy Creech

December 15, 1932 - September 18, 2022

Joy Vivian Creech passed away peacefully on September 18, 2022 in Terrell, Texas. Joy was born on December 15, 1932 in Wills Point, Texas to Robert and Vivian Mae Hall. She is preceded in death by her husband Wright Harman Creech, father Robert Hall and mother Vivian Mae Hall, along with sons Gary Harris, Douglas Ray Harris, Randy Laine Creech, daughter Teresa Kay Jacobs, and siblings Billy Richard Hall and Jerry Annell Ferrell.

Joy was well known for her deep love for many things; of the numerous items Joy loved, family was always at the top! She would dote on her family every chance she was able to. Spending time with family is where Joy's other loves were discovered, such as her love to travel, especially to her favorite place, Kemah, Texas. It was well known that through all of Joy's travels to historic sites and different places the state she loved the most was Texas where she would always return. On the occasional trip or just a drive down the road, if Joy saw wildflowers, she would ask her beloved granddaughter, Nikki, to pull over so she could collect the flowers and take them back home with her to enjoy. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

Joy is survived by her daughter Trudy Jean Coleman and grandchildren Donnie Coleman, David Coleman, Donnitta Coleman, Hugh (Bimbo) Coleman and her beloved granddaughter, Nikki Nicole Harris and husband Jerry. Also left to cherish Joy's memories are her great grandchildren Gary Coleman & Audrey and Kayla Harris along with sister Nita Faye Klein and husband John J. and numerous family and friends, all of whom will miss Joy very much.

Funeral services for Joy are scheduled for Wednesday, September 28 starting at 3:00 p.m. at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel in Terrell, Texas. The family will receive guest and friends one hour prior to service time.
