July 19, 1924 - June 7, 2016

Joyce Arlene Proctor, a resident for over 53 years of Terrell, went to be with the Lord on June 7, 2016. Joyce, known as “Proctor” was born July 19, 1924 in Lampasas, TX to Sie and Sadie (Whitehead) Ervin, both of whom preceded her in death along with her husband, George W. Proctor.

A woman of many talents and a wonderful sense of humor, Proctor made sure to keep up with her children’s, and later grandchildren’s, lives in all levels. Her amazing dedication to spending time with family included cooking for gatherings and times spent sharing and making memories to be treasured. She was also a devoted servant to her Lord having a longtime and very active membership with First Missionary Baptist Church. Catching up with family and friends on the phone was a favorite pastime for Joyce and she made sure to let each person in her life know exactly how special they were to her. Her legacy of making the best of every situation and enjoying every moment with family and friends will be treasured by all who knew and loved her.

“ I was so blessed to have her as a neighbor and dear friend. She loved my family as if we were her own. My favorite memory is one night my youngest daughter who was 4 at the time got acutely ill and we had to take her to the hospital. Proctor had no problem at all being awoken at midnight to care for my other two children. The next day I picked them up to find out my son had aggravated their dog and he had nipped one of my sons fingers. Proctor and George were both very distressed about it. I just laughed it off and said don't worry my son has had all his shots the dog will be fine. They both laughed and laughed. I adored her and she will be greatly missed.

“ To Joyce Proctor's family and other friends: My sincerest condolences. I came to know and love Proctor, the only name she would let me call her, about a year ago when she became my hospice patient. We became good friends, and it was my pleasure to have had her in my life. She met and loved my son, Joe. Joe and I are heartbroken at her passing, but both our lives have been enriched for having known and loved this special lady.
Sincerely, Barbara Masters, RN
