

Karen Carlisle

September 28, 2024

Karen Malone Carlisle of Wills Point, Texas, went home to the loving arms of Jesus and her husband Dewayne on September 28, 2024

Karen was born in Terrell, Texas, to Marvin T. Malone and Dorothy Bloyed Malone. She grew up in Terrell and went to Terrell schools. She liked doing crafts and loved her family and spending time with her grandchildren. Those preceding her in death are her parents; the love of her life, Dewayne Carlisle; daughter, Rachel Vann; and grandson, Jason Mott.

Karen always found ways to enjoy life in its beauty and simplicity. She would love to travel to Galveston, Texas, which was her happy place, and watch the waves roll in. Karen always loved spending time with her kids, grandkids plus her dog children. Karen was an avid crafter and always enjoyed making wreaths made out of eucalyptus leaves and shaping them into hearts. Another fond memory will always be Karen's delicious pecan pies she would bake at Thanksgiving. She is a treasure that will be deeply missed.

Those left to cherish her memories are her daughter, Katie Dodson; son in law, Ryan Stokes; grandchildren, Kaleb Stokes, Jacob Stokes, Adalynn Stokes; sister, Teresa Brazell and husband Richard; nieces, Brittany Byram and husband Derek, and Amanda Cox; great nephew, Nicholas Stepp Jr.; and many other extended family members, nieces and nephews; along with life long friend Johnny Cantrell and wife Amy.

Funeral services are scheduled for Friday, October 4, 2024 starting at 10:00 am at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel. A visitation is planned for Thursday, October 3, 2024 from 6 - 8 pm at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel.
