“ I remember when I was just a little boy, my mom would keep me home from school just to go play outside in a thunder storm and splash around in puddles, and jumping from couch to couch playing our guitars. You loved me with all of you, all my life, and I love you to mom.

Everyone who new her, Loved her. I am blessed to have had her as my mother. We all miss her. I know though, she is in Heaven with our Lord Jesus, no more pain and suffering.

We love you. Goodbye for now momma, but not forever.

Steven, you don't know me, but when you were a tiny infant you and your sweet mother lived at my house for a while in a downstairs room. One evening as I was headed upstairs to bed, I heard her singing to you. It was such a sweet moment that I sat on the stairs and listened for a bit. Though your mother and I lost touch over time, I have never forgotten that treasured moment of tenderness between mother and child. I'm so sorry for your loss. God's Peace be with you.
