“ I want to thank everyone that came to the wake and, or, the funeral. The wake was like a High School Reunion. Dad wouldn't want it any other way. It was so much fun listening to Hogh School stories from his buddies that I've never heard before. Talking to people in Terrell I didn't realize how many friends my Dad had and how many loved him. I thought the Funeral went just like Dad would want it to go. Friends laughing and telling old stories. I want to Thank everyone who loves my Dad and remember he and I love you also. RIP Dad and we will see you again

“ Kevin was one of the hardest working people on the football field. What he lacked in talent he more than made up for with heart and desire. He was quiet and unassuming until you stepped onto the football field. I lived in his apartments on Pacific. Anytime I called for something to be done, he was right there. Very, very dependable. He wad a blessing to know. Heaven just got a little better with him there. Rest in the arms of the Lord, Kevin. You will be missed.
