December 4, 1948 - December 19, 2023

Kristin Ann Warren Miller was born in Levelland, Texas on December 4, 1948, to Rex B. Warren and Ruth (Lita) English Warren who preceded her in death. Kristin passed away peacefully on December 19, 2023 in Forney, Texas.

Kristin had a passion for photography and scrapbooking, and spent her life behind the camera, capturing special moments in her family's lives, along with pictures of windmills throughout Texas. Kristin met her husband, John Miller in sixth grade and were close friends throughout their school years. They married on August 30th, 1974, at Levelland First Methodist Church. Together, they raised their daughter Kimberly and created a lifetime of loving memories as a family. She was always a big part of the school PTA's, whether helping out with school carnivals or getting speakers for students about careers.

Kristin was employed for 20 years as a Crossing Guard Supervisor for the city of Garland, Texas retiring in November 2013 and was also a part of the Garland City Council PTA. After 40 years in Garland, she and John relocated to Heartland, Texas in August of 2016. Kristin and John were faithful members of First Methodist Church of Forney until Kristin's health began to decline.
