

Lanny Dore Fouse

July 5, 1956 - March 9, 2026

Lanny Dore Fouse passed away in the early hours of Monday, March 9, 2026. He was born on July 5, 1956, in Commerce, Texas, to Commodore Fouse and Mattie Opal Elizabeth Cockrum. Lanny is preceded in death by his parents, and cherished granddaughter, Lacey Templeton.

Lanny was a devoted father and grandfather who worked tirelessly to provide for his family. He adored his grandchildren and treasured every moment spent with them—sharing stories, reminiscing, and creating lasting memories. He deeply loved his family and was always there when they needed him. He also maintained a close and enduring friendship with the mother of his children, Donda, throughout his life.

A skilled craftsman, Lanny spent much of his life building motorcycles, a passion that led to his work being featured in magazines. He had a strong love for history, particularly the Civil War, and took pride in owning a piece of land connected to Civil War battle grounds.

In his free time, Lanny enjoyed cheering on his favorite football teams, the Vikings and the Cowboys, as well as listening to music and watching movies.

Lanny is lovingly remembered by his daughter, LaDonda Rodgers and her husband, Jessie; his son, Luke Fouse and his wife, Nikki; his grandchildren, Breanda Higgins, Matthew Forman, Lane Fouse, Lillie Forman, Dylan Fouse,

Levi Fouse, and Aubrey Templeton; six cherished great-grandchildren; his brother, Larry Fouse and his wife, Mary; along with numerous extended family members and friends who will miss him dearly.

A celebration of life for Lanny will be held at a later date.
