“ I remember as young girls, my cousin Lisa and I found some pears on the ground in our Granny's neighbors front yard. We didn't see anything wrong in snatching up a few up to eat. Well, the neighbor saw us and told our Granny who told our mothers. When asked if we "stole" the pears, we denied it. After all the pears were just laying on the ground. It didn't seem like stealing. Of course we eventual confessed because our uncle scared us. He assured Lisa and I that the eaten pears were going to make us REALLY sick, and we'd need a toilet REAL soon. I don't recall our punishment because the next thing we know said neighbor shows up at Granny's front door with a bag full of pears for Lisa and I! Now, I ask you, what was all the fuss about? My cousin Lisa and I had many adventures. Kept lots of secrets. And shared great memories I will forever cherish. I love you dear sweet cousin. Until we see each other again, save a place for me in Heaven.

Lisa, I knew you were Brad's sister, Sondra's daughter but I really didn't get to know you Lisa! I did get to meet you on different occasions. I remember the last time I did see you and you were so sweet and friendly to me! Things like that you don't forget! When I found out you were sick I starting Praying for you. I never stopped! You were on the top of my Prayer list! As I was saying my Prayers last night again you came to mind. I know now I don't need to Pray for you because your Pain free and in the arms of Jesus!
