

Liska La Tisha McCasland

June 6, 1964 - September 17, 2025

In Loving Memory of Liska McCasland

Liska La Tisha McCasland passed into the eternal care of Our Lord on September 17 following a long and courageous battle with illness.

Born on the Pueblo of Ohkay Owingeh (formerly San Juan Indian Reservation), she was a proud member of the Pueblo Nations in Northern New Mexico, near Santa Fe. In 1964, she was lovingly adopted by Jerry and Mamie McCasland and was raised in Richardson, Texas.

A graduate of J.J. Pearce High School, Liska excelled in the fine arts and shared her father's love of reading. A lifelong learner, she went on to earn her Bachelor of Arts degree from Texas Woman's University. Her Native American pottery earned an award from the State Fair of Texas.

Liska had a deep appreciation for music and was especially fond of classic rock, rap, and movie soundtracks. She was an avid fan of science fiction television and movies, and she had a special love for animals of all kinds.

For more than 30 years, Liska served with dedication as a records clerk in the Offices of the Dallas District Clerk and the Dallas County Clerk.

She will be remembered for her love, compassion, and thoughtful spirit. Liska is survived by her mother, three brothers, three nieces, a nephew, and her cat – all of whom will cherish her memory.

A service of remembrance will be at 3:00pm, Sunday, December 21, 2025 at the Columbarium of Oakland Memorial Park.

“ My deepest sympathy to the McCasland family. I've known Liska since we met at Texas Woman's University. She was always a free spirit and a cherished friend. Free from body and human limitations, may you shine in the heavens as brightly as we remember the beauty of your soul.

*I can't considered Liska a fear friend. My late husband could not praise her enough. He bought her dance stick.... something we certainly did not need! He wanted it because "it was what Liska made"! My heartfelt condolences to Mamie and Liska's brothers and their families
I will remember her w love.*

I miss my beloved sister deeply. She was a brilliant, kind soul—funny, well-read and full of light. She always seemed to know just the right words to say when someone was hurting. There was a quiet strength in her, yet she was so very fragile. In difficult times, she showed incredible determination, but the weight of daily life often wore heavily on her spirit. She held a deep love for our father, Jerry, and now that she has departed this world, I pray that they are together in the loving eternal care of Our Lord.
