“ *When we were youg, I was mixed up in some bad stuff and really needed to clear my head. Lowell was driving truck at the time and offered to take me with him for awhile to clear my head. 2 weeks turned in to 4 or 6 and we drove all over the United States and Canada. We had many adventures and talked a lot. He really had a big heart! I still talk about that trip to this day!
Love and prayers to those he left behind. I am truly sorry for your loss.*

Lowell was so kind and caring. He was supportive, non-judgmental, a true friend and my cheerleader on a bad day. He didn't know how much people loved him, but he knows now! Thank God we all knew Lowell.
