

Lynn Chadick Smith

April 10, 2025

Early Thursday morning, April 10, 2025, Betsy Lynn Chadick Smith went to be with her Lord and Savior. She was greeted there by her two children, Rachel Lynn and Herschel Edward, her sister Laurie Chadick Lyons, father Herschel Chadick and nephew Parker Chadick. She was born March 2, 1957, to Herschel and Bette Tinney Chadick.

She asked Jesus into her heart as a young girl and tried to be his faithful servant, singing in Youth Choir, sanctuary choir and working in Vacation Bible School. After attending ETBU she worked at United American insurance and Lakes Regional MHMR. The last 9 years she had faithfully and courageously fought cancer hard, with a positive attitude and God's help, never losing her faith in Him. She loved Him so. And loved her praise and worship music! She had a sweetness of spirit about her that touched everyone. Her gift of cooking delicious meals was her hobby as she also loved her garden. But her most joy came from being her Husband's wife and the best mother she could be to her boys pouring her unconditional love into them. Her family was so important to her, oh how she didn't want to leave them, but now she is VICTORIOUS!!!! And enjoying all of heaven! Her faith was made real in an instant when she saw and ran to her beloved Jesus who never had left her side.

She is mourned by her husband Dan Smith, sons Eric Roberts, Will Smith and Lane Smith, her mother Bette Chadick, sister Katie Chadick Neely, grandsons Matt and Benjamin Roberts, and nieces and nephews.

What joy has filled her soul.... for all eternity!

Funeral service will be 11:00am, Wednesday, April 16, 2025 at First Baptist Church in Terrell with visitation beginning at 10:00am to service time.
