

Mackenzie M Yarbrough

September 21, 2000 - July 21, 2024

Mackenzie M. Yarbrough, age 23, passed away July 21, 2024, at home in Terrell, Texas with her brother Austin and mother Karen, and her father David nearby. She was born Thursday, September 21, 2000. She graduated high school with a college associates degree in 2019 from Terrell High School. She was the kindest soul you'd be lucky to have in your life. She always brought laughter to those who surrounded her. She had an uncanny ability to reach others in a deep and positive way. Her immense love for animals was no secret, as well as their affection toward her the same. She recently started to dabble in the world of plants, in and outdoor. She tended to them in every way possible. Kenzie loved to draw and paint, and she always drew to the beat of her own drum. She created what she felt, not what she thought others would want to see. She is survived by her mother Karen Yarbrough and partner Reed Loman, father David Yarbrough and partner Shawna Perry, brother Austin Yarbrough, grandparents, Ron and Bettie Hasten, grandparent, Sharon Donovan, aunt Shannon Yarbrough, aunt and uncle Diane and Tomas Rangel, aunt and uncle Karon and Claude Tarver, uncle and aunt Jim and Debbie Johnson, and beloved cousins Britney Garrett, Lindsey Olsen and second cousins, along with her beloved pets: dogs Toshi, Kate and Dakota and her cat Penelope, and many other loving family and friends. She was preceded in death by her grandfather, Calvin Glenn "Sam" Yarbrough (Paw Paw Yarbrough).

A Celebration of Mackenzie's life will be held on Wednesday, July 31, 2024, at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel beginning at 5:30 pm.

“ I wanted to give a speech today at the funeral but unfortunately i was unable to due to time. Figured i would post it here.

Most of you know me but the ones who dont my name is andrew. Me and Mackenzie were in a relationship for almost 3 years but eventually separated due to some issues but over the last year we reconnected and have been talking and seeing each other alot. Me and mack met when we were 19. I know karen and most of her family were told we knew each other through mutual friends but we actually met online. Mainly because karen had it drilled in her head that everyone u meet online is a serial killer. Although it took alot of persuasions i eventually convinced her to go on a date w me. We went to this bowling place called sinanigans and Surprisingly i was the one late. If u knew mack u know it was usually her to be late but she didn't mind. We went bowling for a couple hours and no matter how hard i tried to let her win she was terrible. We probably played 5 different games and it felt impossible to let her win a game. But my favorite part was afterwards. We hung on in the car for hours just talking about our similar interests in music, the ourdoors and pets. Before we knew it was midnight. And just a few dates later we made it official and we were inseparable. She would tell her mom she was going to study with friends or going to school but really she was at my house 90 percent of the time. Sorry karen. After finally getting karens permission for her to spend the night at my place she basically never went home and moved in slowly after the next couple months. Although it never worked out between us i know we both wanted to be together in the future once we got our lives together but unfortunately that wont happen anymore. Mack was all of my first, the first girl i brought home, my first girlfriend and the first girl i ever loved.

Rest easy bby girl.

“ Dear Karen, David, and Austin,

I am at a loss for words upon hearing the devastating news about Mackenzie's passing. My heart aches, and I want you to know that I am here for you during this incredibly difficult time.

I have known Mackenzie since she was just four years old, and we developed a special bond over the years. Even though we may not have seen each other often, we always kept in touch through heartfelt text messages. I will forever cherish those conversations and the memories we shared.

Mackenzie was truly a bright light in this world. Her warm hugs and infectious smile could brighten even the darkest of days. Her presence brought so much joy and positivity to everyone she encountered. It is incredibly hard to accept that she is no longer with us.

Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and the entire family. I cannot fathom the pain you must be feeling right now. If there is anything I can do to support you, please don't hesitate to reach out. Karen, I want you to know that I am here for you, and I offer my deepest condolences for your unimaginable loss.

May Mackenzie's beautiful soul rest in eternal peace.
