

Manichanh 'Mani' Khamvongsa

December 2, 1985 - October 9, 2021

Manichanh Khamvongsa, know lovingly to most as “Mani”, passed away October 9, 2021. Mani was born December 2, 1985 in Dallas, Texas to Mark Douangphoumy and Khamkhanh Khamvongsa.

Mani was a fun loving, charismatic, person who could light up any room she entered. She loved passionately and was adventurous in her life. She was always ready to explore and find new treasures and experiences. Mani loved music; she was always the first one dancing anytime she heard a tune. Mani could also be found singing along while being the life of the party. Mani also enjoyed watching movies and spending time with her family. Mani had two daughters that she loved unconditionally until her last day. Her family meant everything to her, and they will miss her tremendously.

Mani is survived by her husband, Marcos Mejia; daughters, Aliyah Bangphachan and Ema Mejia; father, Mark Douangphoumy; mother, Khamkhanh Khamuongsa and husband, Samlane Keopadabsy; sister, Nancy Sayavong; brothers, Alin and Bailey Souvannalath; as well as numerous friends and distant relatives who will all miss Mani and loved her dearly.

Mani’s funeral service has been scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Sunday, October 17, 2021 at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel. Her family will receive friends 30 minutes prior to the service in the chapel.
