

Michael Elledge

May 20, 1977 - February 21, 2026

Michael “Mikey” Jason Elledge passed away during the early hours of Saturday, February 21, 2026– taking his last breaths protecting his loved ones. Michael was born May 20, 1977, in Dallas, Texas to Robert Michael Elledge and Kimberli Ann Clinton. He is preceded in death by his parents and his beloved niece, Grace Bren Braziel.

Michael was the beloved big brother of the Elledge family– protective in nature and playful at heart. Michael was thoughtful in an affectionate yet mischievous way; he would often give his family thoughtful small gifts usually followed with a playful nickname such as “Lips” for his sister, Jennifer. Though often quiet and reserved, Michael was never afraid to speak his mind when something didn't sit right with him.

Professionally, Michael worked in the construction business specializing in residential painting. He thoroughly enjoyed transforming the home of his clients and took great pride in his work. In his free time, he adored tinkering with his bikes as well as expanding his collection of knives. Michael took pride in his appearance and could often be caught adjusting the finer details– always wanting to look his best.

As the strong willed patriarch of the Elledge family, Michael will be missed dearly. Michael's legacy is left to be cherished by his daughters: Amberli

Nicole Elledge-King and Alyssa Ann Elledge; siblings: Jeramie Elledge, Jennifer Elledge and her life partner Jeremy Holt, and Heather Elledge; grandmother, Margie Elledge Mott; aunt, Angela Rickabaugh; uncle, Randy Elledge; nieces and nephews: Haylie Elledge, Kaitlyn Elledge, Steven Ivy, Madison Braziel, Gabriele Braziel, Jeremy "JJ" Holt Jr., and Jayse Holt; as well as many other extended family and friends that will hold their memories of Michael close.

“ I haven't known Mike but a couple years and was just getting to know him all over again,living where we lived and he was a great guy to be around. We became pretty close friends before this tragedy happened. I will miss my friend dearly and Mike you will be in my heart and mind till my last day comes. I will miss our talks and laughs together. Love u sweetheart !

“ Me and my daughter loved Mikey with all of our hearts. He definitely had a great sense of humor, and he was always there for me when I needed him. I remember when my daughter was little and he would make TikTok videos with Jennifer and Libby and it was the cutest thing ever she really needed a male role model in her life at that time and he was that for her, I'm gonna forever miss him. I love you, Mike. May you rest in peace fly high with those angels and watch over us and I'm out here doing it just like I told you I would I'm so sorry for everyone's loss. He definitely did not deserve this.
