He was raised in a loving Christian family. At a very low point in his life, while staying at a halfway house, Mike was saved and put his trust in the Lord, Jesus Christ. Mike had family waiting for him in Heaven: his father, James W. Stewart, Sr. and his sister Patricia A. (Pat) Stewart.

Mike leaves behind his mother, Iris Joy Stewart, brother James Stewart, Jr. and wife Carolyn; three children: Jason Stewart of Kaufman, Cassie Hall and husband Joey of Seagoville, Lauren Soto-Turner and husband Isaiah of Seagoville; six grandchildren: Denae, Angel, Zackery, Ayden, Lorelei, and Brandon as well as aunts, uncles, cousins, nephews and nieces.

John 3:16-17

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through Him.

“ We were friends in the 70's and then he moved off and I never heard from him again. I lost a friend then and sad now to hear of his passing. Prayers going out to his family.
