

Michael Steven Wilson

July 28, 1968 - June 5, 2023

Michael Steven Wilson passed away peacefully on June 5, 2023 in Dallas, Texas. Steve was born on July 28, 1968 and he was raised in Quinlan, Texas by his grandparents, L.G. and Bennie Mae Autrey, both of whom have preceded him in death along with his mother, Jo Catherine Autrey Wilson and a very special dog, Rowsy.

Steve was a special kind of guy and once you met him, you would never forget him! He was a huge Dallas Cowboys Fan, but his heart truly beat for his daughter, Kaitlynn! Steve could always be found at the courtside of any event Kaitlynn was practicing or participating in, including giving some much-needed coaching advise to the coaches and his daughter. Steve was a real estate appraiser by trade and owned his own company. Another unique tidbit about Steve is he always had a funny, light-hearted side to life, always with a smile on his face, and a unique way of putting people down but made them feel special at the same time. Steve was an honest, loyal, and selfless man. Of all the treasures in Steve's life, his daughter was the apple of his eye.

Left to cherish Steve's memories and carry on his legacy is his daughter, Kaitlynn Wilson and his beloved dog, Rollo.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to a local Veterans Organization of your choosing.

Funeral Services are scheduled for Saturday, June 17, 2023 at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel in Terrell, Texas at 3 p.m. with a visitation one hour prior to service time.

“ What can I say my heart is shattered. Though you were my cousin you were my big brother. We were so inseparable growing up. Riding horses going fishing and whatever trouble we could get into. You will be missed but one day I will see you again..

Steven was our neighbor. We would often see him out walking his dog. He was excited about his home updates over the past few years. I used his expertise as an Appraiser to get some guidance on Listings I had. He loved his daughter so much. Taken too soon. So sorry for your loss, sending prayers to comfort you.
