

Mildred Jean Ballard

May 23, 1929 - September 29, 2018

Mildred Jean Ballard Wynn, longtime resident of Elmo, passed away peacefully on the morning of September 29, 2018 with her precious family at her side. Mildred was born May 23, 1929 in St. Louis, MO to William Henry and Velma Wanda (Shrum) Davis, both of whom preceded her in death along with her sons: James Barker, William Wynn, III, Quintin Wynn, and grandson, Kenneth Allen Bostic, Jr.

Mildred was a talented young lady who acted in many different productions in her youth. Her lovely voice and beautiful smile enabled her to be selected for many different entertainment venues and revues. Mildred's skills also enabled her to be a substitute performer for Patty Andrews of the Andrews Sisters during their tours throughout the United States solidifying her professional reputation among her colleagues. She loved meeting people and getting to know them was a passion. Mildred's love of life and kindness to all she met will be a treasured legacy by all who knew her.

She leaves to cherish her memory her sons: Thomas Barker, Marc Wynn, Elster Wynn; daughters: Randy Wynn and Patricia Wynn; brother, Ron Davis; sister, Alice Davis; several beloved grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, extended family and a host of friends. Graveside service for Ms. Ballard will be at 1:00pm, Wednesday, October 3, 2018 at Elmo Cemetery.
