

Myrtle Wade

February 15, 1931 - April 20, 2022

Myrtle Wade passed away peacefully with family by her side on April 20, 2022 in Kaufman, Texas. Myrtle was born in the Cedarvale community on February 15, 1931 to Robert Lee and Marie Mayfield Taylor.

Myrtle was well known in the nursing industry as she served in many of the local facilities, including hospitals and nursing homes. When she was young she had a gift for crocheting afghans and making beautiful throws. To those that knew Myrtle in a special close way, knew she could be a little sassy at times. One of the absolute joys in her life was her great-great grandson, Stephen, whom Myrtle deeply loved.

Myrtle is preceded in death by her parents Robert Lee and Marie, daughter Patricia Taylor, bonus kids Nathaniel and Mary Wade, grandson Jon Weatherford, sister Prudie Evans, brother Troy L. Taylor and nephew Michael Taylor. She is survived by her niece Penny Whiteside, grandkids Steve, Bobby, Kirk and Kyle Wade, great-grandson Keenan Hickey and wife Dakota Morris, along with their son Stephen, as well as Nancy Barton and husband Doug, Donald Taylor and wife Susan, Linda Padgett and husband Ronnie and bonus son Tommy Wade and wife Charolette.

The family is planning a Celebration of Life at a later date.
