

Nicole Jarke

September 9, 1979 - March 28, 2024

We are heartbroken to announce the passing of Nicole Jarke, age 44, of Dallas. She passed away in the early hours on Thursday, March 28, 2024, after a courageous battle with cancer.

Nicole was born in Tulsa, OK on September 9, 1979. She had five beloved brothers and, as the only girl, she grew up to be fiercely independent with a strong belief in what was right and wrong. She excelled in school, spending a semester in Redding, England and Oxford and graduated from Randolph Macon College for Women. Nicole taught college for a year in Prague. She developed a lifelong love of literature and was an avid reader. She loved the arts and was a talented musician playing the cello piano, guitar and harp. She was a passionate mom to her two Golden Retrievers, who are also grieving her passing. Nicole spoke multiple languages including Arabic. She proudly served in the US Army as an E-5 Sgt and was a trained interpreter and interrogator. She was stationed in Iraq and was awarded the Bronze Star. Upon leaving the service, Nicole served at the National Fusion Center and the National Counterterrorism Center before moving to Homeland Security Investigations and SAC Intelligence where she worked as a criminal analyst. Nicole is survived by her husband, Todd Burnes; stepchildren, Colton and Haven Burnes; mother, Susan (Patrick) Brezina; father, Richard (Phyllis) Jarke; brothers: Brian (Holly) Jarke, Richard N. Jarke, Michael (Kara) Jarke, Brandon (Danielle) Jarke, and Matthew (Shae) Jarke. Nicole was the beloved "Auntie Blondie" to her treasured nieces and nephew: Eva, Piper, Reagan, Logan and Kabel.

Nicole was brave, beloved, and cherished by her family and friends. The world is a little darker today without Nicole in it.

Funeral service and celebration of her life will be at 4:00pm, Saturday, April 6, 2024 at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel.

In lieu of flowers, her family asks that donations may be made to Colorectal Cancer Alliance at www.colorectalcancer.org, in honor of Nicole's brave battle.

“ I send my condolences to Nicole's family and friends. We were close in our childhood. I have so many fond memories of her. We had so many sleep overs and played Barbies well up to our 8th grade year, we didn't care we would just giggle all day long. She had the best sense of humor, she was so smart and gorgeous. I always thought of her and wondered what she was up to. Just as today, when I searched and found that she had passed. She is a beautiful soul and brought so much light and joy to this world and everyone she met. Looking at her photos I see that she truly lived a full life.

“ So sad to see that Nicole has passed. We were friends in the army in Monterey and Ft. Gordon. Also traveled together once to England. She was so smart and beautiful. I tried for many years to reconnect with her and find her online - only wish I had been able to do so years ago before seeing this. My heart goes out to her husband and the rest of her family. Can't believe this could happen to someone so young with so much light in her heart and so much to live for.

“ Such an amazing woman; the world is seemingly darker without the light of her presence and spirit. My deepest heart-felt condolences to her husband and family in this moment. I remember Nicole from when we first met in Iraq and remember the strength of her conviction as a team leader and her stern opinions when she knew she was right about a subject. And she was always right! So articulate and wise. Seeing this news, I'm devastated to hear of her passing and can only pray that she is at peace. She touched so many lives during her journey and will be missed by all those hearts.

“ It is extremely difficult to imagine Nicole being taken from us far too soon. I am so grateful for having had the pleasure of being her boss for 2 years. She was extremely intelligent, gifted, passionate, witty, and most of all a kind soul. It is an enormous loss for all of us here at Homeland Security.

“ There are people throughout our life that forever mark their spot in our hearts. Nicole was one of those people for me. We were inseparable for years and I'll never forget our adventures and all-nighters on school nights! Nicole's adventurous and fearless nature amazed me. Although distance grew between us, our friendship remained. I love you and will miss you ❤️
